Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) do not apply to the examination of this application as the application being examined was not (1) filed on or after November 29, 2000, or (2) voluntarily published under 35 U.S.C. 122(b). Therefore, this application is examined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

2. Claims 12-15, 19 and 23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Schirmer et al (6,363,619).

Regarding to claimed invention, Schirmer et al teaches a distance sensor for a motor vehicle comprising sensor for performing at least one of claimed feature such as reflector for receiving echo signal reflected by a target object (i.e. reflector 52 for reflecting particular wave type of the distance sensor that is to be adjusted, col. 4, lines 41-49); a control system including arrangement for, during travel on a straight line using a misalignment angle of the sensor with respect to a center of axis of the motor vehicle (i.e., a alignment mirror 202 on extension arm 203 mounted rotatably about its longitudinal axis parallel to a sighting line 32, which is a straight line that is applied onto reflective surface 31, see col. 3, lines 62-66), and arrangement for correcting a continuing angle measurement in accordance with misalignment angle (i.e. angular determination function wherein the angular position (actual) of target object is compared with angular position (reference), see col. 6, lines 6-39.

Regarding to the claimed yaw sensor that produces signal capable of correcting the trajectory for the curvature travel, it is known that a track or curve can be predicted with help of various sensors such as yaw rate sensors, when the vehicle itself in curve.

Regarding to control system for ascertains the misalignment angle with respect to the center axis, Schirmer et al discloses as in Fig. 7 steps 70-75.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 16, 17, 18, 20-22 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments filed 6/16/03 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant argument as to all the limitations in the claim must be shown identically in single reference. However the argument is not persuasive since claim comprises a sensor element, which performs one of the following limitation(s).

Therefore all three limitations do not have to be fully disclosed in the single reference. With regard to applicant's argument such as a control system including arrangement for, during travel on a straight road, is not disclosed in the reference, however Schirmer does not include that vehicle is mounted in a stationary position therefore, it is inherent to skilled artisan that vehicle is on travel (or moving), see at least Field of Invention section "a proximity radar that is mounted in or on a motor vehicle, for example in context of an automatic speed regulation system."

5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
